

Super Combat Teams

Game show

The fully interactive smash-hit primetime format. Challenging human limits in a battle of stunts beyond your imagination.

Synopsis

In Super Combat Teams, competitors, comprising a diverse range of world champions and record holders, compete in the most thrilling challenges and stunts to prove themselves to be the best.

Each episode presents five spectacular challenges, such as “Fly Over Cars”, “Cross Fires” and “Beat Gravity”.

Super Combat Teams is the first stunt battle format to invite its audience to be part of the show – with viewers at home guessing the result of each challenge in real time via an interactive platform, with cash prizes up for grabs to those that predict the correct winners.

No judges. No mentors. These challenges are real and emotions will run high.

Key Selling Points

- This is not just another talent show – the series has a big heart and many emotional layers.
- Competitors can be long-time rivals, or a young hot amateur battling his or her idol for the first time.
- Celebrity captains win prizes not only for the studio audience, but also the viewers at home, who must watch it live, using the proven simple app, to win – it is DVR-proof!
- Turnkey production hub available to international broadcasters.
- Winner of the Best General Entertainment Programme at the Asian Television Awards.
- China's #1 rating entertainment programme, originally produced for Jiangsu Satellite Channel with a total viewing figure of 96 million people.