Masters of Work

The Ultimate Global Challenge Series!

Gear up for this heart-pounding spectacle as "Masters of Work" takes center stage! Experience the collision of everyday people on a global platform, from the swift shears of sheep shearers to the precise touch of market shelf stockers.

In each episode, skilled workers face-off, racing against the clock and collaborating in teams. This global series is designed for talented trade and service workers, showcasing their gifted abilities to elevate jobs worldwide. This groundbreaking show transcends mere competition; it's a jubilant celebration of diverse talents and unparalleled craftsmanship. Watch as precision forklift drivers race against the clock, showcasing their mastery in maneuvering and lifting loads...barbers going head-to-head in a timed competition to see who can showcase their artistry with rapid and precise speed-fades...or grocery workers facing off in the ultimate bag and shelf race, where competitors showcase their speed in bagging groceries and shelving items.
